

VOLUNTEER POSITION DESCRIPTION

MOVEMENT COMMITTEE CHAIR

POSITION TITLE: Movement Committee Chair
RESPONSIBLE TO: Market Board Chair
STAFF PARTNER: Executive Director of Market Development or Senior Staff Partner
TERM: Three (3) Years

LEADERSHIP RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Lead the Movement Committee recruitment and activation
- Lead the Volunteer Engagement planning and implementation of ways to grow relevancy of the organization, acquire new supporters and welcome volunteer leaders who commit their time, resources and skills to advance our mission.
- Ensure that all board members complete the Confidentiality Agreement and an Individual Engagement Plan annually.
- Lead the Marketing and Mobilization planning and implementation to leverage national messaging, resources and communication/marketing channels to articulate the case for support around the urgent maternal and infant health issue facing our country
- Lead and manage the Nominating and Recruiting process to understand volunteer leadership gaps and build a continuous pipeline of volunteer leaders for the board, events and programs
- Actively cultivate relationships with diverse volunteers and other stakeholders inclusive of age, gender, ethnicity, profession and backgrounds

MEMBER RESPONSIBILITIES:

GROWTH

- Identify and recruit corporate partners and develop new business relationships
- Support March of Dimes financially through a defined give and get market target. A range of $10,000 - $25,000 is recommended and can vary depending on the market. Members can meet this requirement in many ways; market target is negotiated with volunteer leadership and staff
- Make a personal gift annually; minimum of $1,000 is recommended; however, this amount may be even greater depending on the market.
- Hold staff and each other accountable to meet market business plan objectives
- Use the Standards of Excellence to benchmark board performance and measure progress

MISSION IMPACT

- Keep mission at the center of market activity and work collaboratively with fellow board members and staff to build partnerships, steward relationships and mobilize communities to address the urgent maternal and infant health crisis facing our country
- Support the mission by leading and/or serving on a market standing committee or sub committee

MOVEMENT

- Lead by example by inspiring others to take action in support of March of Dimes mission
- Build a pipeline of supporters through a number of meaningful engagement opportunities
- Recruit, welcome and engage other volunteer leaders through a formalized process of nomination, orientation, onboarding and recognition
- Register for the Advocacy Action Center/respond as requested with contacts and/or calls to action
- Agree to board responsibilities through an Individual Engagement Plan

As a representative of the March of Dimes, all members agree to comply with all March of Dimes policies and procedures, including but not limited to standards of conduct, conflict of interest, and confidentiality, as March of Dimes may update from time to time.
